

Concentration of ownership is anti-democratic. This is even more the case when dealing with the public airways and press. Freedom of the press is an essential element of our free society. I cannot understand how you can even consider changing your rules to allow single corporations to own many different types and numbers of media outlets.